AUTUMN SEQUENCES . . .

I am far enough away to ask -- yet close enough--
to renounce the question--

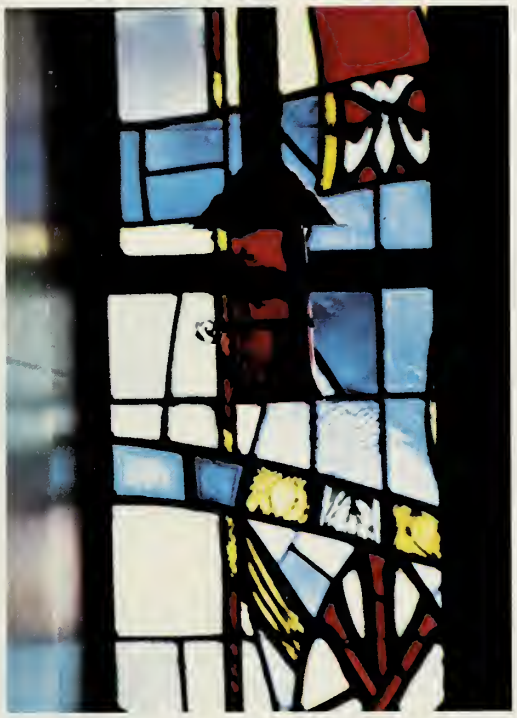
The perfect solitudes
the perfect joy . . .
the perfect length of life . . .

the leaves have found
new surroundings
leaving me once again
grey outside and cold
inside . . .

whose mind reflects
the coming of time?

twisting, winding, soaring
over and everywhere;
and i never knew
my name . . .

There is no need to overthrow the government.
If you look closely you'll see that its' overthrowing itself.



Here's to passing through the same place at the same time and not finishing our conversation.

Give me some hope for my future,
For fear keeps me clinging to the past,
Tell me now, for time is slipping past me,
And the future is quickly becoming the past.

the lullaby of spring

rain has showered far her drip splash and trickle running plant has flowered in the sand shell and pebble sunning in a misty tangled sky
fast a wind is blowing
in a newborn rabbit's heart river life is flowing

from the dark and whetted soil petals are unfolding
from the stony village kirk easter bells of old ring

so begins another spring green leaves and of berries chiff-chaff eggs are painted by motherbird eating cherries

-- donovan

once i stopped to watch time go by,
then i saw it slip past me.
i got scared and ran to catch it,
but that moment was gone forever,

what is it to be alone?
to be on the outside,
looking in at all the others,
never to be allowed to enter.

MERRIMACTION has been most accurately defined as "an open-minded process" in which people become involved for as long or short a time as they want. Over the past six years a few hundred students have become involved in this process and have accomplished what has been estimated at tens of thousands of dollars worth of work in various poverty areas in America.

More important than the relatively microscopic dents that it has made in our nation's poverty, however, is the awareness that Merrimaction has given to those who have been involved in it. Awareness of people, of different lifestyles, and of the realty and extent of poverty in this country.

darwin's mistake

three monkeys sat in a cocoanut tree discussing things as they're said to be said one to the others "now listen, you two there's a certain rumor that can't be true, that man descended from our noble race.
that very idea is a disgrace.

no monkey ever deserted his wife starved her babies or ruined her life, and another thing you will never see a monk build a fence around a cocoanut tree and let the cocoanuts go to waste, forbidding all other monks to taste.

if i put a fence around this tree, starvation would force you to steal from me.
here's another thing a monk won't do,
go out at night and get on a stew,
and use a gun or club or knife to take some other monkey's life.
yes, man descended, the ornery cuss-- but, brother, he didn't descend from us.

And the seasons they go round and round and the painted ponies go up and down, we're captured on a carousel of time.
We can't turn we can only look behind from where we came,
and go round and round and round in the circle game.

joni mitchell

THE REVIEW

Some people believe that we are not captive on the carousel of time, however; I have a strong tendency to disbelieve this suggestion. We can't turn we can only look behind from where we came--At some point in our lives we all will realize this: seniors, for a moment seem to fully understand the essence of this brief encounter with time.

NINETEEN SEVENTYFOUR is a reflection of a play captive in time which now stands recorded in pictures, print and lyrics. You, "THE PLAYERS", have made it possible for the NINETEEN SEVENTYFOUR staff to observe the carousel long enough to capture its' contents.

We did not attempt to stop the carousel whenever we felt it necessary--sometimes we try to accomplish a task that is still impossible, rather we let it stop on its' own, allowing us to capture moments and share them with you.

A yearbook staff is a group of people who work unselfishly toward a common singular goal no matter how uncertain it may be or whether or not they agree with its presence. We are fortunate to have a group of people who can dedicate themselves to this task with such vigor and creativity.

I would like to thank everyone involved with the production of NINETEEN SEVENTYFOUR and especially: Madeleine, Cheryl, Sue, Steve, Kevin, Bob, Jim, Larry MacLean of Stevens Studios, and Joe Donovan of William H. Keller.

The reflections capture in NINETEEN SEVENTY FOUR are now YOURS as well as OURS.

Pax,

Richard
